

Wesley '44

There's a bank raid up in Danville hear them shout it in the street and you hear the same old story from the people that you meet they say the bank clerk got the sack he said I couldn't hold them back he said I've never been so goddamed scared before

I couldn't move a muscle I was rooted to the floor staring down the barrel of a Wesley 44

There's a jailbreak up in Danville hear them shout it in the street and the Marshall aint too happy cos they tied him to his seat and now he' s making his excuse he said I had to turn them loose
he said I've never been so goddamed scared before

I couldn't move a muscle I was rooted to the floor
staring down the barrel of a Wesley 44

There's a wedding up in Danville hear them shout it in the street and if you didn't get an invite then you missed out on a treat they say the groom was kind a shy and when i asked him why he said I've never been so goddamed scared before

I couldn't move a muscle I was rooted to the floor
staring down the barrel of a Wesley 44

Lyrics and Melody
Chris Walker

Railroad Bill Skiffle Group
England